Dedication

In appreciation for your kind heart, friendly smile, genuine interest and enthusiasm, willing co-operation, concern and understanding, inquiring mind, and untiring efforts in furthering the cause of William Penn High School---all of which have been incentive to greater accomplishments, we, the members of the "Penn" Staff, affectionately dedicate this, the third volume of the "Penn" to

Mrs. Eva Browne Stewart.

Introduction

Another year in history and another Penn is off the press. Each year is different. The present year enters the record as one of many outstanding achievements at William Penn High School.

For four years we have watched Penn grow and our camera has captured scenes over this period which are presented in the "BEST YEARS OF OUR LIVES".

MR. SAMUEL E. BURFORD

Hearty congratulations to the Penn staff and its advisor for their accomplishment in the publication of this the third annual of William Penn High School. I watched with interest and sometimes, misgivings, as you worked to crystallize the contents of this book. I rejoice with you in the success you have achieved.

Congratulations also to the seniors. I have enjoyed working with you and wish for each of you, success in a life's work which will aid in bringing about a peaceful and understanding world.

Acknowledgments

A very special thank you should be expressed to the teachers who have graciously permitted their classes to be interrupted for pictures to be taken or for identifications to be made....to students who have spent innumerable hours in the production of the yearbook....to photographers who have waited patiently for subjects to pose.

For everyone.....the staff hopes this book helps to record an important year.....
